MOE'S Cyber Wellness Education

Cyber Wellness Key Messages

1. ICT is an integral part of the learning environment
2. Cyber Wellness Education anchored on three CW principles

These principles will anchor a child's well-being online, as they can make careful and well-considered decisions.

MOE's Cyber Wellness Education

MOE's Cyber Wellness Education comprises the following components to reinforce the importance of Cyber Wellness and its messages.

School-wide Programmes

Examples of School-wide Programmes

“Schools are encouraged to share with parents their school-based CW programmes to create greater awareness of how their children are benefitting from the programmes.”

For e.g. Schools can share with parents their school’s cyber wellness student ambassador programme here (i.e. how their students have led in the promotion of cyber wellness messages and provided peer support for cyber issues.)

PARENTS As Partners

How Can Parents Help?

Parents can help by:

- Being a good role model
 - e.g. not participating in the posting or sharing of unverified information, and informing senders of the misinformation
- Sharing examples of positive online expressions with their children
 - e.g. inspirational stories from social media

How Can Parents Help?

Parents can help by:

- Encouraging use of the T.H.I.N.K. framework before posting anything online
 - Is it True, Helpful, Inspiring, Necessary, and Kind?
- Helping your child understand that sharing false or misleading information can create unnecessary misunderstanding and hurt the reputation of self and others
 - It will also be hard to undo the damage once the information is spread or further misinterpreted by others.

How Can Parents Help?

Parents can help by:

- Encouraging the verification of information:
 - Depending on the type of information received, check against a few authoritative sources like the school, the government or mainstream news sites.
 - Check with a trusted adult.
 - Use fact-checking websites e.g. (www.gov.sg/factually)
 - Do a reverse image search.
 - Look at the language

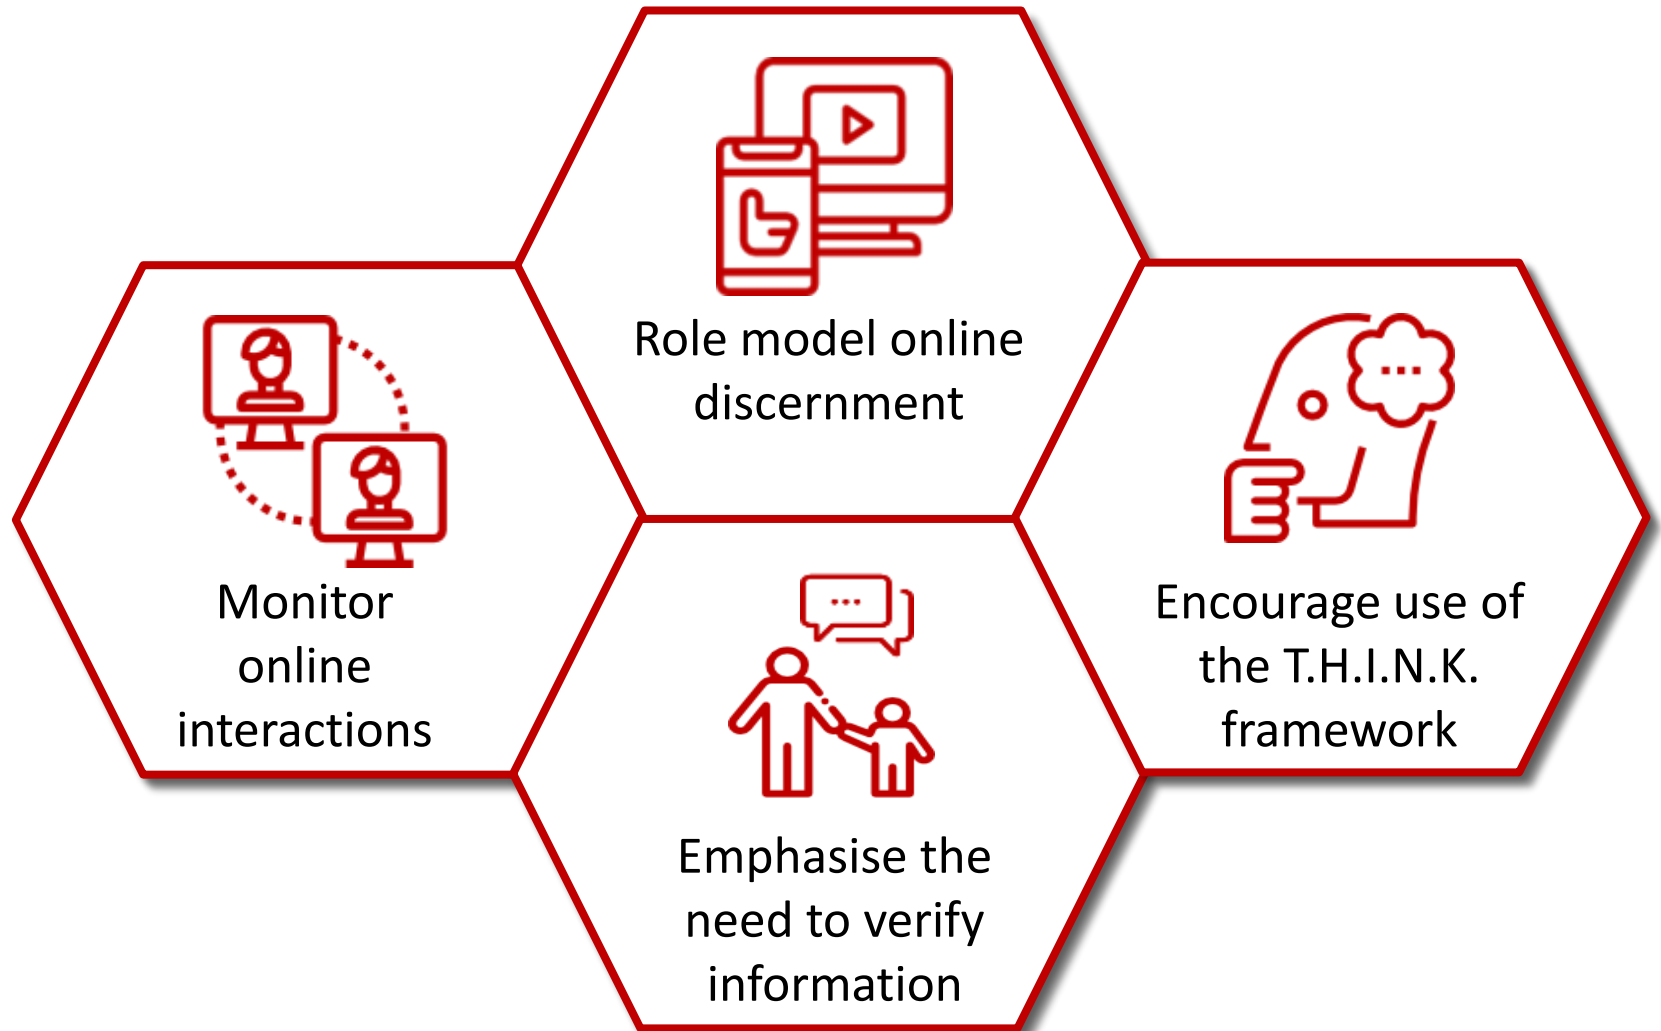

How Can Parents Help?

Parents can help by:

- Monitoring the interactions of their children with others on social media or online games
- Alerting teachers if you think something is not right
